•Written by Faisal Saif.•
••Monday•, 10 •December• 2012 02:41• - •Last Updated•
••Tuesday•, 11 •December• 2012 00:23•

Newly-married actress and Nawab-Bahu Kareena Kapoor has been getting a lot of proposals to dance at the upcoming private parties. But the actress has made it a point and has said a firm no to performing at such events because she is now married into a royal family and does not want to spoil the family's reputation.

This month is a Christmas/New Year month. And organizer's throw expensive and entertaining bashes to cash in on the popularity of the Christmas and New Year time. And this rewarding opportunity is well lapped up by Bollywood stars and celebrities to earn some extra money by performing at such celebrations. But there are some Bollywood Celebrities who are least interested in performing in these celebrations. Kareena Kapoor is one such name in today's time.

When News-Sources asked Kareena, She replied "My family is looked at with immense respect and I will never do anything to embarrass them. I can't even think of dancing at weddings, especially from now on. Being a youth icon, I do not want to set a wrong example. This is a decision made by me and I will stick to it."

Kareena Kapoor's film 'Dabangg 2' in which she does the chart-buster Item Number 'Fevicol Se' is geared up for December 21st release.

•Written by Faisal Saif.•
••Monday•, 10 •December• 2012 02:41• - •Last Updated•
••Tuesday•, 11 •December• 2012 00:23•