Written by Faisal Saif.
Sunday, 30 December 2012 14:08 - Last Updated Monday, 31 December 2012 13:22

Where huge Bollywood personalities like Amitabh Bachchan, Sonam Kapoor, Madhuri Dixit Nene and Karan Johar tweeted in large numbers to express their grief and anguish after Delhi gang rape victim passed away in Singapore hospital. On the other hand, Celebrities such as Flora Saini, 'Spare Me' girl Pooja Misrra and Kavita Radheshyam too lashed out with their anger on Social Networking sites.

Pooja Misrra updated her Facebook status such as "My heart goes out to the Delhi gang rape victim.. Who left us this morning for a better world,considering this one is infested with brutal and heartless criminals who deserve nothing less than death penalty.. Govt of India are you listening? When contacted Flora Saini who recently made a small come-back with Salman Khan starrer 'Dabangg 2', She raised some serious questions in her reply. "The girl's death should not be in Vain. Not only should those guys be punished severely but Laws must be implemented to make women safe. When Kashmir minister's girl was abducted, They left some Terrorists in exchange to bring that girl back, Why? Because she was a Minister's Daughter? What about this girl?" Lashed out Flora.

Controversial actress Kavita Radheshyam updated a very provocative status by adding "My Verdict for those animals who Raped that 23yr old Damini and every RAPIST who had scattered girls life by there 'Sick' act... 'Hang till death'? , 'Shoot in front of the people'? ,Naaaaaaaaaaaahhhhhhhh!!!!!!!! Cut their 'B@%# Off' leave them in the world.. Best punishment for these sick men.."