Adhyayan Suman whose last film 'Dehraadun Diary' failed to create any buzz at the Box Office, Finally get's back and tries to cash in the ongoing 'Himmatwala' publicity. The actor is playing Shakti Kapoor's role from the original 1983 Cult Hit 'Himmatwala'. Adhyayan also feels blessed to work with Ajay Devgn.

Adhyayan nowadays is praising the Re-Make 'Himmatwala' director Sajid Khan very highly. He is also seen talking about Sajid everywhere. When we questioned him about Sajid and his role, Adhyayan immediately replied "Sajid Khan is an amazing person and is also super positive. It's a very different role and I will be playing Shakti Kapoor's part from old Himmatwala. It's a huge opportunity. It feels blessed to be working with Ajay Devgn and it's going to be a big hit."

But this is not all, The actor also hopes to enter 150 Crore club from his movie 'Himmatwala'. It's very tough to figure out how Adhyayan Suman enters a 150 Crore Club when the film belongs to senior stars who are Ajay Devgn and Sajid Khan? Well, Let's not get into all this and wish the 'Himmatwala' director Sajid Khan all the best.

Sajid Khan is indeed a 'Himmatwala' and by the time you finish reading this news, You all are clever enough to understand why!
