Bollywood's Ace photographer Jagdish Mali was seen walking in a semi-nude condition in a city suburb and he needs help said the superstar Salman Khan. However, The photographer's daughter and actress Antara said her father doesn't need help. In return, Salman Khan lashed out in a reply to Antara Mali by quoting "Your father is seen walking in a semi-nude condition on the road and you are saying he doesn't need help. You tell me then who needs help?"

And now bold actress Kavita Radheshyam also came forward and requested Bollywood to help Jagdish Mali. Recently at the Premiere of Mumbai Mirror, The actress spoke to media and informed Jagish Mali did her first Photo-Shoot at a very cheap and reasonable rates. "Today i am working in Bollywood because of Jaggi Da (Jagdish Mali). I was searching him from past one year just to convey that people still appreciate the Pictures that he Clicked with me. I am getting work in Bollywood is because of him. I think i was the last actress who was destined to shoot with him." said Kavita Radheshyam.

Kavita got emotional while sharing some memories with the photographer, She further adds "Jaggi Da is a big fan of Harley-Davidson brand. In his studio, He used to keep a collection of Original Toys of Davidson bikes. He also made a Music Video that he used to show me. I really don't know if that Video ever got released. My heart goes out to him. I would request Bollywood to come forward and help the Living Legend
