
Ram Gopal Varam arranged a special screening for Senior BJP leader Lal Krishna Advani at the national capital. Advani was present there along with various other leaders who cut across party lines to watch the film. Advani was moved to tears in the climax of the film.'Brilliant' is what the senior politician expressed after watching the cinematic interpretation of the 26/11 tragedy.

Here are some tweets from an elated RGV after the screening- Just finished a screening of 26/11 with some top notch politicians in delhi including L k Advanijind I am overwhelmed with the response

Advaniji had tears in his eyes by the end of the film nd his daughter Pratibhaji was visibly affected

Member of parliament Rajeev prataprudy told me that he wants to arrange a show of 26/11 for all the MPs inside the parliament

Others present at the screening were Shah Nawaz Hussain, Sanjay Nirupam, Naveen Jindal BalbirPunj, RajBabbar among others. The politicians were stunned after watching the film. Directed by Ram GopalVarma, The Attacks of 26/11 has received a similar response from all those who have watched the film till now including Shekhar Kapur, Amitabh Bachchan and AbhishekhBachchan.
