Bigg Boss of “The City That Never Sleeps” movie Pooja Misrra will be soon seen in her new avatar where she will welcome Atithi Devo Bhav in the indian version of bbc's popular show 'come dine with me’ called Welcome-Baazi Mehmaan Nawazi Ki. It was surprise to see the Bigg Boss girl avoiding all kind of fights and celebrate her birthday carnival style on the show. Other contestants had come with preconceived notions about her on the show, and were trying to trigger fights in all directions but Pooja handled it with utmost dignity and refused to get embroiled in any kind of controversies. Besides her witty oneliners and scrumptitous cuisine, we got to see a calmer, composed, side of Pooja, it was really nice to know that she has turned a completely new leaf.

Pooja Misrra said, “It was very exciting to be a part of such a great show and get a pleasure to celebrate my birthday on the show. It was fun to cook different kind of recipes for my guest. I think they are lucky to get a taste of my lovely delectable cuisine”.

The bombshell of Bollywood is currently busy promoting her forthcoming movie “The City That Never Sleeps” which is produced by Satish Reddy and Directed by Haroon Rashid. So Pooja fans keep your eyes peeled out for “Welcome-Baazi Mehmaan Nawazi Ki”, the show that airs on 18th march, incidentally this happens to be Pooja's birthday as well .
