Manish Malhotra unveiled his newest collection, 'PORTRAITS' at the India Couture Week tonight over a spectacular show at the Taj Palace Hotel.

An ode to femininity and heritage, Manish Malhotra's 'PORTRAITS' derives its inspiration from the innate desire to capture moments of beauty and make them timeless.

'PORTRAITS' frames the tales of the neo-bride in a stunning tableau of colours, fabrics and silhouettes. Much like her vibrant personality – vivacious yet demure, opulent and simple, traditional though steeped in modernity, the collection is a beautiful play of picture-perfect juxtapositions. While the fabrics and silhouettes appeal to contemporary sartorial sensibilities, the detailed embroidery is reminiscent of Indian craftsmanship of yore.
