3G has cashed in on the month of love by launching its romantic song ‘Kaise Bataaoon’. Starring Neil Nitin Mukesh & Sonal Chauhan, the movie is produced by Eros International and Next Gen Films. The song also marks the debut of Sonal Chauhan as a singer.

Kaise Bataaoon showcases the sizzling chemistry between Neil and Sonal against the serene beaches of Fiji. K.K and Sonal Chauhan’s vocals add a mesmerizing feel to the song and takes you to another world altogether. A definite chartbuster, the romantic track is soothing to the ear and manages to leave a mark with listeners wanting more.

The Background score, composed by Mithoon, blends well with the vocals giving a brilliant feel to the song.

Carrying on the Valentine feel, the release comes as a perfect treat for audiences to dedicate this romantic number to their loved ones. Apart from that, the team also kick started special contests on their social platforms which gives the audiences a chance to meet Neil Nitin Mukesh and Sonal Chauhan. Directed by Shantanu Ray and Sheershak Anand, 3G is the nightmarish story of Sam Arora and Sheena, a couple, who become victims of a series of events when Sam buys a 3G enabled second hand phone in Fiji while on a holiday. The film is slated to release on 15th March.
