Bollywood's bubbly actress Priety Zinta is making her come back after a long time with her upcoming home production film 'Ishq In Paris'. But since film's release date was announce, it has got changed twice. First it was to be released on October 8 and later on November 2. According to the reports preity is waiting for good buyers for her film.

As Preity shot the film in Paris which turned extremely expensive, she wants to sell the film at high price as to recover the investment.

However Priety's close friend and Mega Star Salman Khan has confident on Priety, he feels that priety will get the price she wants. Well Slaman is not just showing confident on preity, he has also taken initiative to help her out. Salman has asked younger brother Sohail Khan to help priety sell her film.
