Southern siren Taapsee is all set to make her Bollywood Debut in David Dhawan's much anticipated comic caper 'Chashme Baddoor' where she would be seen getting wooed by 3 dashing young lads, Ali Zafar, Siddharth & Divyendu based amidst the sands and beaches of Goa!

Well! Not many are aware that Taapsee and Siddharth who have been friends since a long time as both have worked in the Telugu film industry were going to do a film together! Yes, Taapsee's debut in the south was supposed to be opposite the jovial actor Siddharth. Unfortunately, due to some reason the film could not be made and she went on to star in Telugu flick 'JhummandiNaadam' opposite Manoj Manchu.And as luck would have it, it turns out that Siddharth is a major part of Taapsee's Bollywood debut!

When asked, a very excited Taapsee said, "Yes my debut film was supposed to be with Siddharth, and because of certain reasons the film did not materialize, and here we are,working together and that also in a Bollywood film! I was thrilled when I came to know Siddharth is also part of the movie. Since we both have had similar journeys its great chatting up with him about Telugu Films and everything that's happening back there"!!

Well, some things are just meant to happen! We're definitely waiting for this one!

Directed by David Dhawan & Produced by Viacom 18 Motion Pictures, Chashme Baddoor stars Ali Zafar, Siddharth, Divyendu Sharma and southern sensation Taapsee.

The film hits theaters on 5th April, 2013!
