Tarun Rai & Jacqlin Fernandez giving awards to the winner of HELLO!, It was the most awaited event of the year as HELLO!, India's leading celebrity and luxury lifestyle magazine, and the RWITC came together to host the annual HELLO! Classic races at Mahalaxmi.

Well known for its high style quotient and entertainment value the HELLO! Classic races are sought after not just by the crème de la crème of the society but also by the racing aficionados. And just like the last two years, this year too was a high-octane extravaganza as Mumbai's stylish fashionistas trotted in with their brawny counterparts to cheer and bet on their favourite horses.

With their sights set on the race tracks, the gliterrati swaggered in their Sunday best, as they mingled over classy cocktails and sumptuous horse d'oeuvres through the breezy afternoon. And to add to the thrill andexcitement, HELLO! gave away luxury prizes to the various winners.

The Hello! Classic was sponsored by Forevermark Diamonds. The other partners for the event were UK's leading salon Saks, Fruitlicious and Signature.

About HELLO!, The world's No. 1 Celebrity Magazine: Since April 2007, HELLO! has successfully covered the glamorous world of famous personalities, royalty and film stars. Armed with the strong reputation of being one of the world's leading celebrity magazines, HELLO! is invited into the palaces and homes of some of the most elusive royal families, movie stars and celebrities – to get the view from inside. The result: intimate and insightful interviews that attract a growing family of discerning and dedicated readersmonth after month.