Actress Manisha Koirala who was recently diagnosed with ovarian Cancer wrote to her fans and well-wishers on a social networking site on Thursday and asked them not to worry about her. According to the Reports, Manisha is being treated at a hospital in New York.

She was scheduled to get operated on December 8 but that has now been pushed to Monday. The actress updated her Facebook on Thursday: "Dear friends, thank you for all your wishes.. I m in good place n in good hands..with all your love n prayers I'm sure I'll recover..it was shocking to know but then life is full of surprises..one must deal with it n move on with faith n dignity..what ever is th out come its for best..I know that..so pl don't worry..I have had a beautiful life so far n I know,what ever will happen will all be good..thank you from bottom of my heart for your prayers..love m koirala".

The Get-well-soon wishes started pouring in for her after she was rushed to a hospital in Mumbai recently before leaving for U.S. Manisha was last seen in RGV's 'Bhoot Returns' which failed to make an impact on Box Office.
