Bollywood Diva Chitrangada Singh clarifies on bold scenes she has given in her upcoming film 'Inkaar' opposite Arjun Rampal. The film is directed by Sudhir Mishra and it is based on sexual harassment at professional workplaces.

The actress says that she knows where to draw the line when it comes to do the bold or the bed scenes. "As long as I am comfortable with my director and co-actor, I am open to doing the bold scenes. But I know my own limits and I know when and where to say no," Said Chitrangada in a recent interview in Mumbai.

As an actor Chitrangda has done commercial movies and an item number as well. She believes that an actor should always give its 100% to deliver the best of the character and therefore she says, "If you are not involved in a scene, your discomfort shows on screen and you look stupid," she added.
