

Heartthrob Arvind Swamy returns to Films

•Written by Faisal Saif. •

••Saturday•, 12 •January• 2013 01:48• - •Last Updated•

••Sunday•, 13 •January• 2013 05:05•

---

The actor who once made women heart go Boom is back on the silver screen with Mani Ratnam's upcoming Tamil film 'Kadal'. Arvind Swamy started his career with Mani Ratnam's tamil film 'Thalapathy' (1990) and he went on to play lead roles in Roja and Bombay.

Despite of being a Tamil actor, Swamy gained his popularity in Bollywood too. Both his Bollywood films 'Saat Rang Ke Sapne' and 'Raja Ko Rani Se Pyaar Ho Gaya' were flops, But the actor was successful in creating a Female Fan-Following for himself. Arivind Swamy suddenly disappeared. There were no trace of the actor. He completely left Cinema and engaged himself in his inherited business. He got separated from his wife, Andmade his own small world with his children. He almost spend a decade in businesses ranging from construction to international trade to outsourcing.

Arvind Swamy will now be seen once again in Mani Ratnam's 'Kadal' (Tamil) which is about to hit the screens in February. The Trailer on the YouTube features the actor in a New and a Fresh get-up of a Priest who is bold and romantic. It is a Pleasure to bring you the Still-Handsome actor's look from the movie.

Heartthrob Arvind Swamy returns to Films

•Written by Faisal Saif. •

••Saturday•, 12 •January• 2013 01:48• - •Last Updated•

••Sunday•, 13 •January• 2013 05:05•

---