Kareena Kapoor tops the list of every Bollywood director. While film makers are waiting patiently for Bebo to come on board, she seems to be sitting idle even after blocking her calendar with upcoming projects. What seems to be keeping Bebo idle these days?

Bebo had finalized dates for Prakash Jha's movie Satyagraha with Ajay Devgn, which was to go on floor this January. However, zoOm found out that since Ajay Devgn is currently filming for Himmatwala, which got delayed because of the controversy surrounding Son of Sardar, Satyagraha will get deferred. This means Bebo's dates are definitely being wasted!

Recently, Bebo had to let go of Sanjay Leela Bhansali's Ram Leela even though she had allocated dates for the same. In the past, Kareena has been forced to pass on a few films including Karan Johar's, as her calendar was overbooked. We just hope this temporary phase in her life doesn't leave her waiting on one foot for long.
