The 'Self Made' superstar and Bollywood's action hero Akshay Kumar has turned singer in his upcoming film 'Special Chabbis' and has dedicated the song to his wife Twinkle. But that doesn't mean Akshay is taking this profession seriously, He sang it for Passion.

"I rehearsed the song for three hours before recording. However, this song will not be used in the film. I just did it as a passion. I want to dedicate this song to my wife Twinkle as tomorrow is our wedding anniversary and Valentine's Day is also coming soon" said the 45 year old Akshay Kumar. The music of 'Special Chabbis', slated for February 8 release, has been given by M M Kreem. Directed by Neeraj Pandey of 'A Wednesday' fame, the film is based on a true incident of robbery where 26 people posing as Income Tax officials raided a famous jewellery store in Opera House here in the 1980s.

Speaking more about the film without revealing much, Akshay informs I can't reveal much about the film as there are lots of twists and turns in it. But I can say that I reinvented myself with this film and had a lot of fun while shooting. I realised it is fun to do this kind of film."
