

Deepika launches her Facebook page

•Written by Amit Bachchan•

••Wednesday•, 06 •February•, 2013 04:29• -

The launch of Deepika Padukone's official Facebook page has created a massive buzz on social media. She already holds a strong digital presence, with a whopping 2.6 million followers on Twitter. However, with the introduction of her Facebook page, her Internet fan base is expected to rise and reach over 5 million, soon.

Deepika's official Facebook page looks more like a reflection of her life, marking a few milestones in both her career and personal life. Simply put, her page is informative, interesting and fun, along with lots of photos from her childhood to her current acting career today. Now, how could a Deepika fan resist that!

After two back-to-back hits, Cocktail and Race 2, Deepika is extremely excited about her recently launched Facebook page. Citing her excitement, she said, "I have never been on Facebook before. Now with this launch, I am really excited to be on this interactive platform and be able to connect with my fans!"

Just like the beautiful actress, her fans are equally delighted about the launch of her Facebook page and are looking forward to watch her timeline progress! So get ready to get an exclusive glimpse into the life of Deepika Padukone at www.facebook.com/deepikapadukone