Actor Ayushmann Khurrana, who will be next seen playing the role of a theatre artiste in Rohan Sippy's laugh riot 'Nautanki Saala', seems to be displaying his romantic side in 'Mera Mann', the song from the movie, which was released recently.

Sung by Falak, the song is a romantic number and features Khurrana, Kunaal Roy Kapur and Pooja Salvi. In the song, the 'Vicky Donor' actor is seen strumming a guitar and flashing his dimples, much like Bollywood superstar Shah Rukh Khan has done in a few of his movies (Indeed, in an event, Khurrana had admitted that he has mimicked SRK in the movie).

Directed by Rohan Sippy and co-produced by Bhushan Kumar, 'Nautanki Saala' is a buddy comedy about two young men working in a theatre group.
