super movie jai ho , While it is pretty much expected that Jai Ho would be a Salman Khan show all the way, here is more. Apparently, the entire supporting cast of the film is filled with friends and close associates of Khan brothers.

"There are just too many of those in Jai Ho," comments an insider, "Ashmit Patel, Vatsal Seth, Nauheed Cyrusi, Yash Tonk - all of them have been long standing friends of Sohail. On the other hand actors like Mohnish Behl, Mahesh Manjrekar, Mahesh Thakur and Vikas Bhalla have worked with Salman in one film or the other."

Suniel Shetty plays an important part in the film as well. Interestingly he along with Ashmit and Yash were a part of Sohail's Fight Club - Members Only'. Vatsal had featured in Salman's Heroes. As for Nauheed, she has been a part of many Sohail starrers, including Lakeer, Kisaan and Main Aurr Mrs. Khanna.

"When it comes to the leading lady Sana Khan though, it is a known fact that Salman Khan had highly recommended her once she participated in last year's Big Boss," a source adds, "While Daisy Shah is the leading lady in the film, Sana has a very important part to play as well. So is the case with Pulkit Samrat who is in a relationship with Salman's 'rakhi sister'."

With the kind of star power that Salman is boasting of, it seems quite obvious that all those actors were brought into the fold who swore by loyalty and forged a close relationship with him or his brother.

Not to mention Eros, which managed one of the biggest wins of the recent times by stepping in as producers along with Sohail Khan, after backing Salman's Veer.
