The latest song 'London Thumakda' from the Kangana Ranaut starrer 'Queen' which was shot in the coldest days of winter in London, ended with the actress cooking Chinese for the entire unit, Delhi style!

While Kangana shot for the entire song in the coldest days of the year in the city, she made sure the shoot ended on a delicious note. On the final day of the shoot, the actress took the entire unit by surprise when she served them all with the Chinese dishes prepared by her. The crew was exhilarated on realizing that the Chinese food was cooked with a perfect Delhi twist. Impressed by her culinary skills, the entire crew couldn't help but compliment the food and the chef behind the delicious experience.

Presented by Viacom 18 Motion Pictures, Queen is a Phantom Production. The Kangana Ranaut starrer is directed by Vikas Bahl, and produced by Viacom18 Motion Pictures, Vikramaditya Motwane & Anurag Kashyap. Queen is scheduled for release on February 28, 2014.
