At the Screen awards last evening Farhan Akhtar bagged the Best Actor 2013 award by the jury for Bhaag Milkha Bhaag.

This is Farhan's second award this season. He previously bagged the Big Star Entertainment Awards. Farhan has worked extremely hard to get into the skin of his character and this can be witnessed on screen.

Usually there is a certain unpredictability attached to awards. However this year around there seems to be no ambiguity in the air.

Farhan is the hands down contender for his performance in Bhaag Milkha Bhaag. The critics and audiences have all loved his performance in the film.

Bhaag Milkha Bhaag did very well at the box office. The film ran for over four weeks and got appreciation from all quarters.
