Shah Rukh Khan recently added another award to his hefty award kitty. Guess whom he dedicated the award this time around? SRK dedicated the Guild award he recently won to his son Abram.

King Khan took to Twitter to share his happiness at receiving the award with the fans and also conveyed his gratitude to his company Red Chillies Entertainments for the VFX work that they did for superhero film `Krrish 3`.

SRK tweeted - "Third award of the season. Finally, got one for AbRam. Age does come before beauty so he had to wait. Also VFX killing it second year in a row,"

The two awards SRK won are 'Best Entertainer of the Year' and another for the Visual Effects of 'Krrish 3'.
