

Diana Penty and Eva Pavithran at the Cover launch

•Written by amit bachchan•

••Wednesday•, 26 •March• 2014 00:13• -

Femina Salon And Spa's much-awaited summer issue is out. The March edition is a tribute to summer beauty. The cover story, A Midsummer Night's Dream, has hairstyles that are perfect for sultry summer evenings. Showcased on the gorgeous cover girl Diana Penty, these no-hassle summer-friendly hairdos were created using some amazing products from HUL's TRESemmé.

Also, hair and makeup experts Steven Mick and Clint Fernandes shared their trade secrets for the season. Along with the usual fare of spa reviews, latest launches and industry happenings, there is also an exclusive feature on ways for salon professionals to beat stress at their workspace.

The issue was unveiled at Café Infinito, BKC by Diana Penty, the cover-girl and the brand ambassador for TRESemmé along with Tanya Chaitanya, Editor, Femina.

Says Tanya Chaitanya, "Femina Salon And Spa is an attempt to make you more gorgeous by equipping the beauty-creators with the right tools, advice and tips. We have been fairly successful in our mission, we believe. This issue gives us a preview of the big hair looks of the season along with the interviews with experts and on-trend 101s.Keep loving us!"

One of the favourite hair care brands of New York's fashionistas, TRESemmé, has always been driven by a simple truth; every woman deserves to look fabulous as if she has just stepped out of a salon. Recommended by hair stylists all over the world, TRESemmé unveils the secret of split end rescued, salon style hair at home every day. The brand tied up with Femina Salon And

Diana Penty and Eva Pavithran at the Cover launch

•Written by amit bachchan•

••Wednesday•, 26 •March• 2014 00:13• -

Spa to create six chic and wearable summer looks ideal for the season.