Mika Singh, who has lent his unique voice to several Bollywood superstars, has crooned a promotional song for Subhash Ghai's upcoming film Kaanchi.

Reportedly it's a rap song and is titled mushtanda. Mika is very thankful to Ghai for considering him for the song, over many others. The video of the number has been choreographed by Rajeev Singh and while the original song in the movie has been picturized on Chandan Roy Sanyal, Mika will also feature in his version of the track. Buzz has it that Singh will be seen sporting his favourite gold watch, which is worth a crore, in the video.

Kaanchi stars Kartik Tiwari, Mishti, Rishi Kapoor and Mithun Chakraborty in the lead roles and is slated to release on April 25.
