

DAR The Lunchbox continues its winning streak

•Written by amit bachchan•

••Saturday•, 29 •March• 2014 03:28• -

'The Lunchbox' has done it yet again, bagging more international acclaim. The Asian Film Awards or often referred to as the Asian 'Academy Awards', were recently held in Macau. 'The Lunchbox' managed to leave its mark at this very prestigious platform as well, winning the Best Actor Award (Irrfan Khan) and the Best Screenwriter Award (RiteshBatra).

The Film has had a plethora of awards to its credit Indian and international alike. Commenting on this VivekRangachari, producer DAR Motion Pictures Pvt Ltd said, "This is very natural path for a ground breaking film like 'The Lunchbox'. The film had started to get recognition and acclaim while it was still in the script stage. This made the potential of the film obvious. To the fact that the film has been winning awards since its first showcasing in Cannes and it has been winning various awards since then.."

DAR has had great 2013, some of the films were Mickey Virus and D-Day. In the content zone 'Ugly' is another feature slated to release in 2014