

Krishika Lulla receives Best Woman Entrepreneur of the Year award

•Written by amit bachchan•

••Tuesday•, 01 •April• 2014 03:04• -

Krishika Lulla, one of the most successful Producers who produced films like Raanjhanaa, Desi Boyz and Anjaana Anjaani, to name a few at Eros International, was recently awarded Best Woman Entrepreneur of the Year at the 21st JAI National Awards organized by the Journalist Association of India. She received this award at the awards function held in New Delhi.

JAI national awards are bestowed upon significant personalities of various fields after a careful study of their body of work and their contribution to the society.

After several successful film to her credit as producer, Krishika is now gearing up for her upcoming releases of the films like Kochadaiiyaan, Puraani Jeans, Action Jackson, NH 10, Tevar and Happy Ending at Eros International.

Krishika's brother Ramesh Dembla, who is a well-known fashion designer also won an Award at the JAI National awards. Many Superstars like Akshay Kumar, Jacqueline Fernandez and Riya Sen to name a few have walked the ramp for him.