Shahid Kapoor is enthusiastic to learn new things. The young actor recently spoke to a friend who went river rafting and had a fantastic experience... Since then Shahid river rafting has caught his fancy.

Most people go for river rafting as an experience.... However Shahid is keen to learn the nuances of the sport and go rafting himself.

River rafting is one of the most difficult adventure sports and needs a lot of strength. One needs to be familiar with the different rafts, understand tides, routes and also how weather affects.

Shahid has actively been reading up on river rafting. He has also been doing research on where is the best river rafting in India.

North particularly is known for river rafting. Shahid has been talking to various people about river rafting and would like to remove some time out and try the sport
