Amitabh Bachchan is on a promotional spree for his forthcoming film 'Bhootnath Returns'.

Big B who is currently in the capital city, Delhi to promote the film is in an extremely jovial and fun mood we hear.

In fact during the interview rounds, Mr. Bachchan was enjoying himself so much that after one interview he got up and took the camera and started interviewing the cameraman instead.

Well, we must say Big B sure has his ways of keeping everyone's mood light.

Produced by T-Series and BR Films and releasing on 11th April, Bhootnath Returns is an entertaining tale of good against evil, weak against powerful, past against future directed by Nitesh Tiwari and it sees the return of Big B aka Bhoothnath who with the powerfully talented child actor Parth aka Akhrot strive to see a change in the country!
