All speculations have now come to an end, as it's been officially announced that wedding bells have finally chimed for YRF scion Aditya Chopra and his lady love Rani Mukerji. The couple exchanged wedding vows on April 21, in Italy.

Rani and Aditya tied the knot on Monday in a secret ceremony, in the presence of their respective families and close friends. Yash Raj Films has released an official statement confirming the reports, which reads, "We are happy to announce that Mr. Aditya Chopra and Ms. Rani Mukerji got married last night on 21st April in Italy. The wedding was a very small intimate affair with very close family and friends."

In her statement Rani says, "I would like to share the happiest day of my life with all my fans all over the world whose love and blessings have been part of my journey all these years. I know that all my well-wishers who have waited for this day will be really happy for me. It was a beautiful wedding in the Italian countryside with just a few of our close family and friends with us. The one person I missed terribly was Yash Uncle, but I know he was there with us in spirit and his love and blessings will always be with Adi and me. I have always believed in fairy-tales and with God's grace my life has been exactly like one, and now as I enter the most important chapter of my life - the fairy-tale continues."
