Actress cum producer Tanishaa Mukerji has extended her tryst with television as she will now be seen judging the comedy reality show Gangs of Hasseypur. While Tanishaa had donned a beautiful Harsh Harsh dress at the press conference for the show, the actress has selected a Falguini and Shane Peacock dress to wear in one of the episodes of the show. We love the hair up with the digital print dress. The cut of the dress is just right for Tanishaa's slim figure as the actress is looking fabulous after having lost oodles of weight in the Bigg Boss house. Take a look at the accessories and everything from the stylish bracelet to the rings are just perfect. Quite a style statement!
