Recently when Shraddha Kapoor was shooting, she had a bitter sweet experience.

A 7 year old girl who was Shraddhas fan came to meet shraddha along with her father

The father told shraddha how his daughter is such a fan of hers and she loves her. He said, You are so beautiful. My god you are so pretty, my daughter isn't pretty but someday she wishes to be like you, in front of his daughter.

To which shraddha immediately disagreed and told her that she has a pretty smile and always keep Smiling and hugged her.

Shraddha was totally shaken up and for the sake of humanity, she told her team to get that man outside her vanity van and with a lot of respect and politely explained to him how wrong he was in doing that.

Told him that what he did could have serious implications on her growing up years, self esteem and scar her for the rest of her life.

The young actress later met his daughter again and all was good. Shraddha told her she is a rock star and she has to dream big and believe she is the best.

The man was so touched by this that she wrote a letter to Shraddha's parents for the kind of upbringing she has had.
