Farhan Akhtar got very emotional receiving the Dada Saheb Phalke Ratna Award 2014 for the Best Actor on 30th April night.

Farhan Akhtar's performance in Bhaag Milkha Bhaag has set a milestone. The actor who had gone through a year and a half training to get in the shape of Milkha Singh has been appreciated and honored in all form for his outstanding act in the film.

So much so that this year, the actor swept in all the awards for the Best Actor.

Recently at the IIFA, the actor was overwhelmed to receive the award for Best Actor from hands of the legend himself, Milkha Singh where the entire house gave him a standing ovation on his achievement.

This time around the actor got very emotional when he received the Dada Saheb Phalke Ratna Award.

Dada Saheb Phalke Ratna Award is considered India's highest award in cinema given annually by the Government of India for the contribution to Indian cinema.
