

Shraddha Kapoor goes back to school

•Written by amit bachchan•

••Saturday•, 03 •May•, 2014 04:42• -

Shraddha Kapoor has been in a hectic shooting schedule since September. The young actor has been shooting for Haider with Shahid Kapoor and then directly went on to shoot Ek Villian with Sidharth Malhotra. Now having wrapped shooting for both her films, the young actor had some time off and she planned the trip. Before she starts promotions of Ek Villian, Shraddha wanted to unwind and take a small break. She will be visiting Boston university where she was studying before she joined the industry.

Shraddha has friends in Boston whom she has struck a cord with. Even in the midst of work she is in touch with them.

The young actor was looking forward to meet them. When her film Aashiqui 2 had released her friends in Boston had given her feedback on how her songs have become a rage. Shraddha had later sent them DVD's of the film.

Shraddha is also keen to visit her hostel and the room she stayed in.

The hostel is close to college and she is very keen to get the required permissions and peek into her former room. The actor was trying to get in touch with hostel authorities to get permissions. Spokesperson of Shraddha shares "Shraddha has been in a hectic shooting schedule. Having some time to herself she is visiting her university in Boston and is also keen to see her room."

Shraddha Kapoor goes back to school

•Written by amit bachchan•

••Saturday•, 03 •May• 2014 04:42• -