Actor Vir Das, who is a dog-lover, will be seen sharing some scenes with a pug named Noni Singh in upcoming rom-com 'Amit Sahni Ki List'.

Sources close to the actor reveal that when Vir Das was told about the pug and his sequences, the actor asked the makers to use his British Bulldog named Watson in the film as Vir felt that Watson would be the perfect choice for the role. "However, Vir's fiancée Shivani, who is also a dog-lover and quite protective about Watson, put her foot down as she knew that shooting schedules are quite tiring for dogs, especially in such weather and Vir finally agreed, "added a source.
