The recently released Marathi film Lai Bhaari has received rave reviews. It is an out and out entertaining film with action and drama but what everyone is raving about is its plot and gripping story.

The man behind this engaging story is none other than Sajid Nadiadwala. This is the first time that Sajid has written a story for an outside banner.

Sajid had written this story a while ago. When he narrated it to the producers of Lai Bhaari, they really liked the story and wished to make it into a film.

People have really liked the story and are coming out in support of the film on various social media platforms. The story of Lai bhaari has been widely appreciated by critics, viewers and people from the industry.

Sajid Nadiadwala is truly wearing multiple hats this year successfully. Right from being the producer for critically acclaimed Highway to super successful 2 States and Heropanti. As we are waiting for his directorial debut Kick, he scores again a success as a story writer for Lai Bhaari.
