

Shraddha records an unplugged version of her song for her fans

•Written by amit bachchan•

••Friday•, 18 •July•, 2014 09:25• -

Shraddha Kapoor is riding high on the success of her recent outing Ek Villain that has crossed the 100 crore mark. She has delivered back to back hits with Aashiqui 2 and Ek Villain with both her films being commercial successes and entering the 100 crore club.

Besides acting, Shraddha also turned singer for Ek Villain Shraddha is touched by all the love and compliments she has received from her fans and is overwhelmed by all the positive feedback she has got for her version of Galliyan. Shraddha is thankful to her fans and has recorded an unplugged version of her song for her fans. The actress has received praises galore from all quarters for her voice. She wanted to take her singing further and is taking this opportunity to thank her fans through her beautiful voice.