For the very first time, young actor Aditya Roy Kapur will be keeping a roza.

The actor, who rose to immense popularity post the super successful film, Aashiqui 2 will be next seen in Yash Raj Films' Muslim Social, Daawat-e-ishq opposite Parineeti Chopra. Aditya has planned to maintain a fast on the last Roza this time, which is taken to be an important one.

With the entire atmosphere being so positive and spiritual around him, it came to him in a spurt to keep this fast.

The actor has been under a very strict diet to get in the required shape for his next where he has to eat the right food at correct intervals.

But for this special day, he has made an exception as he is very keen to keep the fast.

When contacted Aditya, he confirmed the news and added, "A lot of my friends keep Roza and this time I decided to keep it with them. I've never really fasted so this could be difficult."
