Huma Qureshi has double celebration up her sleeve. Huma's birthday is around the corner and she is looking forward to this one.

Her birthday is on 28th July and usually falls during Ramzan and so the actor never really celebrates.

Huma observes Roza and hence her birthday is very low key.

This time around her birthday in all probability will be on Eid.

She will get a chance to celebrate both together Eid and her Birthday which is a double innings.

Huma's parents will be coming to Mumbai over the weekend.

She has asked her mom to prepare all the favourite dishes and it will be festive and celebratory. She loves the biryani her mom makes.

She is looking forward to her Eidi and birthday presents and plans to go shopping too.

Says Huma 'This year Ramzan ends on my birthday and my parents will be there with me. I am expecting to have a festive birthday.'
