

Tiger Shroff wants International Tiger Day to be special for his cub Lee

•Written by amit bachchan•

••Monday•, 28 •July•, 2014 03:21• -

The biggest debutant of the year, Tiger Shroff who made his debut with Sajid Nadiadwala's Heropanti, adopted a four-year-old tigress called Lee at the Maharajbagh zoo in Nagpur recently.

The actor visited the city during the adoption for the legal formalities and also to see the tigress personally.

Now, on the occasion of International Tiger Day, the actor was keen to do something special for Lee. Be it getting fresh meat for her or telling authorities to arrange for special shelter for her especially during these monsoons.

The actor has been bearing the expenses incurred for the tigress since then.

He keeps checking on her to see whether she is healthy and well taken care of.

Tiger Shroff believes that tigers are a unique combination of beauty, fearlessness and power.

He has always been fascinated by the ferocious, handsome and majestic animal. In fact he is

Tiger Shroff wants International Tiger Day to be special for his cub Lee

•Written by amit bachchan•

••Monday•, 28 •July• 2014 03:21• -

inspired by the animal's strength, agility and power that are unfortunately reducing in number.