Rajkumar Hirani has been busy with the post production of P.K. However the ace director yet has a chunk of shoot to complete.

Source close to the production shares “P. K. still has some portions that haven’t been shot, including a song that will be filmed across India.”

The source further shares, “Aamir has to lose weight for the shoot and get a toned body. The shoot will most likely happen in August or September.”

Rajkumar Hirani is keeping things ready and once the remaining part is finished the final post production will start.

The last schedule would take about 10 – 15 days of shoot. The team is also currently doing recce and prepping for the shoot.

P.K is one of the most anticipated films of the year. It will mark the return of Rajkumar Hirani and Aamir Khan after 3 idiots. The film is slated to release on December 19.
