The young actor who made a roaring debut with Heropanti this year is extreme particular about time.

Tiger ensures he reaches at least 10 minutes before time.

The young star starts is very disciplined. He starts his day very early... almost around dawn. He dedicates 6 hours to his practice and exercise regime an he has been doing this for years

All of this has instilled a strict sense of time in him. He reports at events on time. Recently Tiger Shroff received yet another honour. Recently he got honored by Kukkiwon, The World Taekwondo Headquarters, which is part of the South Korea. They felicitated him with a 5th degree black belt at an event in Mumbai.

The organizers of the event were highly impressed that he came in much before time. They were very glad that they got more time to interact with him and learn how his regime and other activities

Even during shooting he used to report on sets much before the call time. With his punctuality, hard work and charm he is definitely a rising star.
