Actress Poonam Pandey has stated that she will surprise her fans with her boldness in her debut film 'Nasha'. Poonam was recently quoted saying that she is a bold person, and so was quite comfortable shooting for the bold scenes. She added that as she is here to entertain the audience and to do her job, she is, in fact, enjoying shooting for the bold scenes.

The cast and crew of 'Nasha' have been shooting in Mahabaleshwar since November 5. Pandey stated that it has been an amazing experience shooting over here and that even though the weather is cold, it's a perfect location for the film.

She quipped that they are shooting few scenes in the open and some scenes inside the rooms.

The director of 'Jism', starring John Abraham and Bipasha Basu, Amit Saxena is directing the film. About the first look which was launched recently, Poonam said that she knows everybody loved the first look, but added that it wasn't easy shooting for it.

The film is being produced by Surender Suneja and Aditya Bhatia.
