

Flora Saini's 'Tiny' comeback with Dabangg 2

•Written by Faisal Saif•

••Thursday•, 20 •December• 2012 22:52• - •Last Updated•

••Friday•, 21 •December• 2012 05:44•

South Indian actress and Bollywood Diva Sridevi made a huge come-back with Talk-Of-The-Nation film 'English Vinglish' and on the other hand, Actress Flora Saini also makes a small come-back with superstar Salman Khan starrer 'Dabangg 2' which hits the cinema's this Friday.

The actress started her career with South Indian films and has done approximately 50 films down south till date which includes Gajendra (With Vijaykanth), Kuselan (With Rajinikanth) and Money Money, More Money (With J.D.Chakravarthy).

Flora was also launched in Hindi by ace director Rajat Mukherji's 'Love In Nepal' (2004), But the film never made a mark at the Box-Office. The actress now plans to shift the base in Mumbai and is targeting Bollywood as she awaits Dabangg 2 release. On being asked about her missing in Bollywood, Flora replied "I've been doing films in other regional languages. Now I'm doing a Telugu film, so it feels good to be back."

But this is not all, Immediately after Dabangg 2 releases, The actress will be soon seen playing the Lead role in Hasnain Hyderabadwala's 'Ya Rab' which also has Pakistani acclaimed actor Manzar Sehbai who was seen playing the most hated father in 'Bol' (2011). "Hasnain had earlier directed "The Train" with Emraan Hashmi. We've been friends for long and finally when he had this script, he asked me to come on board." Adds Flora.

There are also whispers in Trade and Media about the actress recently signing another Big Banner film. However she remained very Mute about this new project and politely answered "It will be too early to talk about this project as I have worked with some big names in the past. Hopefully I will manage to work with a few top guns in Bollywood soon."

Flora Saini's 'Tiny' comeback with Dabangg 2

•Written by Faisal Saif•

••Thursday•, 20 •December• 2012 22:52• - •Last Updated•

••Friday•, 21 •December• 2012 05:44•

