

Year End gonna be full of action in Bollywood

•Written by Nayan Karekar•

••Thursday•, 22 •November• 2012 01:31• - •Last Updated•

••Friday•, 23 •November• 2012 02:23•

With the three big action movies including one suspense thriller, the year end will see a full of action flicks in theaters. Nowadays the action with comedy factor really working a lot at Box office. From 'Wanted' to 'Singham' and Golmaal series, the comedy action films grabbing more audience to the theaters.

Aamir Khan, Rani Mukerji and Kareena Kapoor starrer film Talaash is releasing on November 30. The film is suspense thriller with some spice of action. The film has made lot of curiosity and its Aamir Khan's film after a quite long time, so no doubt the film will see a good response at box office.

Then in next month, Akshay Kumar and Asin starrer 'Khiladi 786' is releasing on December 7. As the name of the film suggest and even the promos promised, 'Khiladi 786' is full of an action flick. Akshay is coming back to his original style after a long.

And finally the year end i.e. on Christmas Eve, one more awaited film of the year Dabangg 2 will release on December 21. Salman Khan, Sonakshi Sinha and Arbaaz Khan Starrer film 'Dabangg 2' is expected to collect huge amount at box office as the film will also get the benefit of vacation release.