Fox Star Studios and VB Pictures Matru ki Bijlee ka Mandola have managed to attract audiences during the week collecting net of 41.15 crores world wide making it Vishal Bhardwaj's biggest film ever.

The film has garnered Rs 33.15 crores NET Box office in India and Rs 8 crores from overseas - along with the revenues from TV, Music and Home Video has recovered its investment in week 1 itself .

Vishal Bhardwaj, very happy with the fact that MKBKM has made money says, " This is my biggest opening and appreciation is coming from lot of people. But I am really happy and relieved about the fact that i am able to make the kind of movie that i want to make and still have a profitable film. "

Vijay Singh, CEO FoxStar Studios says , "MKBKM has polarised audiences and is testimony to the changing audience preferences..it is todays Jaane Bhi Do Yaaro ! What makes it more gratifying is that despite differentiated content it has found an audience base to enable the film recover its investment in week 1 itself. "
