The trailer of Dishkiyaon created a stir on the social media front ever since it launched online ,courtesy some high-octane action ,power-packed dialogues and of course some sizzling chemistry between the leads – Harman Baweja and Ayesha Khanna, who makes her big Bollywood debut with the film.

The stylist turned actress who was discovered by producer Shilpa Shetty Kundra was initially nervous, given that the film marks her acting debut, however Harman Baweja guided the actress through the scenes and made it a smooth process shooting for the film.

Says a source, " The scenes Harman and Ayesha share are not your typical run-of-the-mill romantic scenes. The two got along like a house on fire and the comfort they share off screen helped them deliver convincing performances on-screen, oozing of sensuality".

All praise for Harman says Ayesha Khanna, " I would take a lot of advice from Harman. He was extremely sweet and patient with me and never once made me feel like I was a newcomer. It was great working with him and I did learn a lot from him and that shows on-screen".

On his part says Harman Baweja, "Never once did it feel like Ayesha was a newcomer and in fact I was so impressed with her that I personally felt she's worked on 10 films before this one. We had several workshops together to work on our chemistry and scenes and the fact that people have sat up and taken notice makes it worth the effort."

Says producer Shilpa Shetty Kundra, "Harman and Ayesha are both great actors and extremely
