Nargis Fakhri, who captured hearts of many fans with her debut film 'Rockstar', is said to be one of the wittiest and most stunning actresses of Bollywood. Her Facebook page is being flooded now-a-days, with thousands of fans expressing their excitement and anticipation for the release of her much awaited comedy film 'Main Tera Hero'. Nargis, too, has been keeping her fans updated with the promotional activities going on for her film.

Nargis, who plays the lead role in the upcoming movie 'Main Tera Hero', has generated a lot of excitement with the release of the movie's posters, trailer and songs. The comments on her social media profile range from 'Too hot to handle' to 'Hit nahin Superhit hai'. Nargis' fans have been eagerly waiting for the film's release, so that they can watch the leggy lass sizzle on-screen. Nargis recently posted images from her visit to Korum mall for the promotion of her film, and was surprised to see a multitude of people who had turned up to meet them. The actress said, "What a turn out! Loved to see all of u and felt the love! Wow".

Directed by David Dhawan, 'Main Tera Hero' stars Nargis Fakhri as Ayesha and is scheduled to release on 4th April 2014.
