Bollywood Superstar Salman Khan today launched the music album of the upcoming Bollywood movie Khwaabb at a glittering ceremony at Taj, Lands End. KHWAABB is a sports drama, showcasing the struggle of our athletes. Produced by Arjuna Awardee Moraad Ali Khan, it features newcomers Navdip Singh and Simer Motiani in the lead roles. The supporting cast includes actors like Nafisa Ali, Rishi Mighlani and Theatre Star Bajrangbali Singh.

The album is an eclectic mix of various genres of music. It includes a powerhouse title track performed by Sonu Nigam, composed by acclaimed musician Sandeep Chowta. The album has a rustic fun track- TV ki Jai Ho performed by Kailash Kher and a soft love ballad Shamein performed by Rahat Fateh Ali Khan and Shreya Ghoshal. Both songs have been composed by Sajjad Ali Chandwani. Young and brilliant talent, Amal Malik has scored the soundtrack of the film. Top international drummer Virgil Donati has played on the title track, the lyrics for which have been penned by Sameer.

The KHWAABB soundtrack brings together a great amalgamation of talent, music and flavours that music lovers would enjoy.

The event witnessed some of the most prominent personalities of the Entertainment fraternity in attendance. Amongst those who graced the occasion were Salman Khan, Sohail Khan, Sajid Nadiadwala, Daboo Malik and Moraad Ali Khan.

According to Producer Moraad Ali Khan, " If you are a sports lover, sportsperson or yours kids play sports; I can assure you that Khwaabb will relate to some part of your own story. I had an amazing young and talented team who have translated the story into a truly entertaining and inspirational film'.
