Director Manmohan Singh is back with “AA GAYE MUNDE U.K. DE” with superstars of Punjabi Cinema,

Jimmy Shergill, Neeru Bajwa, Gurpreet Ghuggi, with Om Puri. When Roop (Jimmy Shergill) sees Disha (Neeru Bajwa) it's love at first sight. Both are from the same city, both are young, both are educated and both are perfect for each other having been born and raised as Punjabi's – a match made in heaven.... Or so thinks Roop.

The grass is always greener on the other side and Disha's father Dilip Singh (Om Puri) - a foreign return Punjabi believes that only an NRI is a suitable match for his princess. The NRI's are more educated, classy, cultured and all round more worldly. For him the local boys just don't make the cut.

It is now that Roop must not only hide his true identity from the love of his life Disha but also her father to win over his bride with a little help from his best friend DJ (Gurpreet Ghuggi).

On a mission to stand up for all the local Punjabi boys Roop decides that he must fake it to
