Farhan reports to sets two hours before time Farhan used to start his day 2 hours early everyday while he was shooting for Dil Dhadakne Do

Farhan Akhtar had multiple presence on the sets of DDD - as an actor, producer and also a dialogue writer.

While Ritesh Sidhwani is an hands on producer and was looking into all details, Farhan used to be available to ensure all ends are met.

He used to start his day 2 hours before the call time to ensure everything is in check.

They had a hectic shooting schedule and were working against the clock.
